

2024/2025 ARTICLING STUDENT POSITION

YELLOWKNIFE

Lawson Lundell LLP is looking for a 2024/2025 articling student in our Yellowknife office who is a self-starter and is interested in a hands-on experience. A student who articling in our Yellowknife office will have the opportunity to engage in a unique Northern practice, with an emphasis on the corporate aspects of environmental, regulatory and indigenous law. The Yellowknife office has the best of both worlds: a small collegial firm environment, with the resources and client base of a large, well-respected western Canadian firm.

As a leading Canadian business law firm, Lawson Lundell LLP provides a broad range of legal services from its offices in Vancouver, Calgary, Yellowknife and Kelowna. Articling students have the opportunity to get exposure to a range of matters on both corporate commercial and litigation files.

Students in our Yellowknife office may have the opportunity to spend time in our Calgary office and may travel to the Vancouver office from time-to-time to participate in professional development training.
